Aspiration Excellence Transformation

Welcome to Durrington High School

Do you want to work and develop your career in a successful and forward-thinking school and Trust who offer a variety of benefits to staff and whose core belief is that all children are entitled to an excellent education? If so, read on, because we want to hear from you.

You may wish to start a career working in schools with an ambition of training to teach and progressing further within our school. Maybe you are a primary teaching assistant looking to develop your skills in secondary school or have relevant experience from a different setting. We are keen to recruit someone who genuinely likes young people, is keen to develop and wants to be part of a great team who are committed to making a difference.

Durrington High School is part of Durrington Multi Academy Trust (DMAT) and is a large and oversubscribed school with 1635 students on roll in years 7 to 11. We genuinely believe in recruiting, retaining and developing the best possible staff to ensure all students achieve beyond their best. Durrington High School has a sustained track record of improvement for many years and we always want to continue getting better. We are immensely proud of our students, staff and school and relentless in our efforts to give our students the very best education they deserve.

Being a national research school and having our own SCITT (School Centred Initial Teacher Training) means we are offering unparalleled professional development opportunities for all our staff. We have many examples of colleagues who started in a TA role with the school and have been supported to progress; this being into their choice of career route and including into pastoral roles, training to teach and progressing into leadership within our school.

If you feel that you can bring something special to our school and Trust, we want to hear from you now!

Co-Headteacher

Shaun Allison
Co-Headteacher

The Role

Teaching Assistant

Our committed and friendly Student Support team predominantly works within class, under the direction of the teacher. We have moved to a subject system many years ago so Teaching Assistants usually work with one, two or three subjects (depending on size and need), enabling close working relationships and the opportunity to develop subject knowledge. The Specialist Education Needs and Disabilities (SEND) team are led by Kathy Hughes, SENCO and Kate Blight, Assistant Headteacher - Standards and Inclusion.

Experience of working with young people in an educational setting is desirable but we would also welcome applications from graduates who may wish to train to teach in the future. If you have transferable skills and are passionate about education; committed to making a difference and have the know-how and skills to support students with complex needs in bridging their learning gaps; if you are able to balance care and support with challenge, rules and high expectations, we would like to hear from you now!

What can Durrington Multi Academy Trust offer you?

- Opportunities to develop in role and promotion for staff with the zest and desire to progress in their career. This is a role that could eventually lead to a pastoral role in the school or progression into teaching. Successful applicants would be well placed to apply to train to be a teacher with us, with the potential for a part-funded place in our outstanding SCITT.
- The opportunity to apply to become a form tutor and/or undertake additional paid lunchtime duties.
- The opportunity to work with amazing young people and colleagues who are passionate about what they do.
- A happy school; relationships are very strong between staff and students.
- Health, well-being and work-life balance are extremely important to us. All staff are part of a health insurance scheme, have access to a range of support from external agencies and a free flu vaccination. We are always reviewing and seeking to provide additional benefits for staff.
- A fabulous modern and light working environment on a spacious site with on-site parking and rail and bus links close by.
